About Inkyeverafter Press

Inkyeverafter Press is a small independent press which specialises in producing high quality illustrated children's picture books, romance and fantasy fiction.

Krissy Lloyd Marketing Director

Krissy has over 10 years experience handling the PR and marketing for a variety of companies, charities and community groups.

She started out as a broadcast journalist at Isle of Wight Radio and has worked as an assistant to a leading London literary agent. Part of her job there was to read the slush pile so she understands just how hard it is to get published traditionally.

Krissy has been passionate about books since discovering Enid Blyton as a little girl. She wrote her first novel in middle school and hasn't stop writing since. She is currently working on a romance novel which will be published by Inkyeverafter Press later this year.

Zoe Sadler Founder/Creative Director

Zoe has over 10 years experience working as a freelance children's book illustrator and book designer. She also has various forms of experience within the publishing industry.

Zoe has a BA Hons in Illustration and Pg Dip in Publishing.

Frequently frustrated by how increasingly difficult it is to make your mark in the field of traditional publishing lead Zoe to found Inkyeverafter Press. She strives to improve the stigma surrounding self publishing and raise the standard of poor quality books that are often associated with this market.
